

Places to Visit in Makkah & Medina

What are the places we should visit in Makkah.?

- Jannatul Maula.

It is the cemetery of the people of Mecca, and it is on the way to Mina, The grave of Um-Al-Momeneen Bibi Khadija (the first wife of Holy Prophet) and that of Prophets's son Qasim, Asma Bint AbuBaker, Abu-Talib, Abdullah Bin Zubair, and other members of the Holy Prophet's family , may Allah be pleased with them all, are located in this cemetery.

This cemetery is located near the Al Haram Mosque and one can easily go there to pay homage and respect to the people buried there. There are two sections of this cemetery. One section contains old graves while the other contains new graves and these are the graves of ordinary citizens. This cemetery is also known as Al-Hajun. The Holy Prophet (PBUH) used to visit it frequently. It is the 2nd holiest graveyard of Islam after Jannat-ul-Baqi (Baqi Graveyard).

- Jabale Noor : Jabal an-Nour (also Jabal an-Nur or Jabal Nur), (Arabic: النبور جبل), meaning "The Mountain of Light", is a mountain near the city of Makkah in Saudi Arabia. It houses the Hira cave where Prophet Muhammad (sallahu ali wasslam) received his first revelation in Arabic from Allah (s.w.t.) through angel Jibraiel.

- Masjid e Kahf - 70,000 Prophets are buried here
- Masjid e Uqba Ula - In Mina Makkah still the same as it was at time of Prophet.
- Birth Place of the Prophet (Sallalhu Aleh Wasslam)
- Araafat, Mina, Muzdalifah.
- Masjid-e-Ayesha.
- Jabale Rahma.
- Jannatul Maula.
- Gar e Hira.
- Gar e Tur.

What are the Places we should Visit in Medina.?

- Jannatul Baqi.

The most blessed and spiritual graveyard in the world: Jannatul-Baqi, wherein lie a great number of companions, wives, daughters and other family members of Rasulallah sallallahu alayhi wa sallam.

Allah's Messenger SallAllahu alaihi wassalam said: "Peace be upon you, O abode of believers. What you were promised will come to pass tomorrow at a fixed time. We shall, Allah willing, soon join you. O Allah! Grant forgiveness to the people who are buried in al-Baqi' al-Gharqad." (Muslim)

And: "I am the first for whom the Earth will burst open, then Abu Bakr and then Umar. I shall then come to those who are buried in al-Baqi' and they will be gathered along with me. After that I shall wait for the people of Mecca so as to be gathered among the inhabitants of the two sacred cities." (Tirmidhi)

In the time of Rasulallah sallallahu alayhi wa sallam, this grave yard was thought to be outside of Madina but now it is adjacent to Masjid an Nabwi. Al-Baqi' is a powerful place. Other cities consider it their pride to host a single saint; but here there are hundreds. All around lie at rest the men and women who heard the Prophet's summons, and broke the idols of their forefathers, and gave their lives to his cause.

Imam Malik rahmatullah alayhi (a resident of this blessed graveyard) puts the number of sahabah buried here as 10,000.
